WEED control in sugarcane with Atrazine frees labor for other work.

You can reduce or even eliminate the need for costly hand-hoeing of weeds in young sugarcane by spraying with Atrazine 80W herbicide. That's all it takes to give you season-long control of most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses, including lamb's-quarter, pigweed, Spanish needle, crabgrass, alexanders, goose grass, purslane and portulaca.

Weed control like this enables you to use what labor you have for planting and harvesting. Allows you to handle more acres of cane with the same labor supply.

The idea is to spray Atrazine before weeds emerge. Then, once rainfall has moved Atrazine down into the weed root zone, the herbicide keeps killing weeds as they germinate. Atrazine is relatively safe to cane.

See your supplier now for the Atrazine you need to give your sugarcane a clean start without costly hand-hoeing.

WEED control in sugarcane with Atrazine frees labor for other work.

You can reduce or even eliminate the need for costly hand-hoeing of weeds in young sugarcane by spraying with Atrazine 80W herbicide. That's all it takes to give you season-long control of most annual broadleaf weeds and grasses, including lamb's-quarter, pigweed, Spanish needle, crabgrass, alexanders, goose grass, purslane and portulaca.

Weed control like this enables you to use what labor you have for planting and harvesting. Allows you to handle more acres of cane with the same labor supply.

The idea is to spray Atrazine before weeds emerge. Then, once rainfall has moved Atrazine down into the weed root zone, the herbicide keeps killing weeds as they germinate. Atrazine is relatively safe to cane.

See your supplier now for the Atrazine you need to give your sugarcane a clean start without costly hand-hoeing.

SENSING THE NEWS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Southern States Industrial Council

STORMING THE PENTAGON

The horde of anti-Vietnam demonstrators that invaded the nation's capital Oct. 21 and attempted to storm the Pentagon could have been visitors from another planet. To those who saw the demonstrators close up, the mob of protesters was indeed a strange and disturbing sight. Many of the male marchers had long hair and were attired in beanie or hippie costumes. In the line of march were individuals with Viet Cong flags or buttons proclaiming their hatred of the United States. One of the march leaders openly termed the President of the United States the real "enemy." Those Americans who remember their history may remember that the demonstrators had a recollection of the so-called bonus army, another mob of protesters that invaded Washington a generation ago. At that time, the U.S. government was not confused about its rights and responsibilities to all the people of this nation. Under the command of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, troops promptly cleared the bonus army out of Washington. Unfortunately, the present administration lacks the same clear grasp of rights and responsibilities. In an excess of tolerance, it permitted the demonstrators to swarm across government property, to carry their Viet Cong flags up to the Lincoln Memorial, and in a variety of ways, to paralyze large areas of the nation's capital.

No one has yet calculated the final cost of the anti-Vietnam demonstration — to the taxpayers, for instance. But it was necessary to bring soldiers to Washington from as far away as California.

There should be no misunderstanding of the meaning of the Oct. 21 demonstration around the Pentagon. It was a cry for help, one that enabled the communists to test their ability to disrupt the capital of the United States.

The various leftwing and pro-revolutionary groups taking part in the Washington march are increasingly open in admitting their goal is revolution in the United States. The abortive effort to get a large number of demonstrators inside the Pentagon, nerve center of America's defense, revealed the seriousness of the revolutionary danger. The assault group of demonstrators, which initially overran a thin line of defending marshals and soldiers at entrance No. 7 to the Pentagon, were using railroad flares in a regular assault operation.

Americans will be foolish if they imagine that the demonstration outside the Pentagon is the last such threat that will be posed directly against the U.S. government. All the evidence points to the fact that it is just the beginning.

What the public needs to appreciate is that the anti-Vietnam demonstrators — at least the leaders and planners of the assaults on the government — are conducting war from within. They are working hand-in-hand with Ho Chi Minh in North Vietnam and his Russian supporters. It is not worthy that Ho Chi Minh sent a message of sympathy to the demonstrators in Washington.

Around the world, communists from groups conducted coordinated sympathy marches.

The kind of excessive tolerance that the administration engaged in Saturday, in dealing with the demonstrators, only plays into the hands of the communists and their allies. If they believe that the U.S. government will be soft on insurrectionaries, then they will push all the harder. Actually, the administration was not necessary to use the soft approach. The Constitution guarantees freedom of peaceful assembly, but the demonstration was anything but peaceful.

Moreover, no one has the right to exercise "peaceful assembly" at any point on a highway, specifically, no one, under the law, is allowed to trespass on government property or to deny the right of other citizens to use the highways for normal travel.

Unless anarchy is to spread in this country, the federal government is going to have to come down hard on Ho Chi Minh's allies in this country. Indeed the nation has to recognize that there is an enemy within that divisibility is a fact and has to be dealt with sternly. The press has an obligation to present, before demonstration take place, the pro-communist character of the groups involved. The types of organizations engaged in the Washington demonstrations and storming of the Pentagon have the objective of destroying American society and our nation's strength.

Surprise Move Met By Cold Colas, VC Propaganda In Buddhist Altar

By a Marine in Vietnam

VIETNAM — We are finally settled in our new area. After the rather uncomfortable condition of our last combat base, this place seems nice. Most of the tents are "struckback" with wooden frames and floors.

We have electric power, refrigerators, television and radio sets to the supply areas in Da Nang, about 15 miles north. The base area in acres and acres of fine sand which gets into everything. It reminds me of the beaches in Florida.

We have been on one battalion-size operation that was a well planned, three day sweep of an area where several Viet Cong units were reported.

The plan was to move southward in a truck column, making it look like a routine road movement. We were to drive southward and then turn left and begin a sudden sweep eastward. But, at the last moment, we were met by a VC force of about 50 men.

It sounds like a security leak, but since our allies were in on this operation, it came as no surprise. The VC force was about 50 men and a half day's march from our position.

The nights were spent in small hamlets with many of the troops occupying the hamlets. The VC force was about 50 men and a half day's march from our position.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

In Answer To "Objector"

To the Editor:

Recently, in the Belle Glade Herald, I read a letter which was sent by an anonymous person. In that letter the person indirectly criticized the Belle Glade Band for displaying a Confederate flag. He asked why it was flying and asked what it stood for. You said that the letter offered a challenge for the public to have the courtesy to listen to what may be unpopular sentiment. Well I've listened, and, being a member of the Belle Glade High School Band, I would like to try to answer him and correct his possibly misconceived ideas.

On April 9, 1865 General Lee of the Confederacy and General Grant of the Union signed a treaty ending the war between the States. The South had lost and, as a result, 3,500,000 slaves were freed, but it took four hard years for the North to win. The strange part is why it took the South so long to surrender. The South had almost every advantage, including the fact that it drafted many of its soldiers. The Southern army was made up of volunteers. Despite the fact that they were underdogs, over 100,000 Southerners volunteered to fight which shows that they must have thought that they were in the right. As a matter of fact they felt so strongly that they were right that they were willing to die for it. Today, the South may have been wrong.

I'm proud of the young American. It is good that the loud, profane, and misled young protesters, who are daily in the headlines, are a minority. As long as we have young men like we have here, our country has nothing to fear.

in wanting to keep slaves but they thought that they were right and that's what counts. I'm proud that there were once Americans who were willing to be pushed around and die for what they thought was right. Maybe it would be better if we had a few more Americans today who were willing to say what they thought was right and what they believe even when the public "disapproves." To me the feeling of unity among the people. There is a flag means South rather than Confederacy and since Belle Glade is in the South, that is the feeling that is common to all of us. Through this common feeling of unity among the people, the closer together causing a feeling of unity. As far as that night's event is concerned, if you'll think back, Belle Glade was looking the game, a circus was in town for its bell, and our country for our apparent lesser spirit.

A Southern who cares. Jim Winchester

UPDP Aids Attend Workshop

Gov. Elementary School was the setting for a workshop for the Belle Glade Unified District Program for first grades in the Belle Glade schools Friday afternoon.

The structure of the program was reviewed by Mrs. Selma Bamford, Glades Zoned Reading Teacher, who directs the program in this area under the supervision of John Spagnoli, Reading Coordinator for Palm Beach County Schools. Each fact of the program was discussed along with the best methods to administer it successfully. Materials were shown and many suggestions were contributed by members of the group.

Many of the aides participating in the program this year are new to the job and have been well experienced as they graciously donated their services last year in order that our children might have this extra experience in their first year in school. Their sharing will be of much value to the new workers in the field.

The following aides attended the workshop: Rachel Cranford, Patricia Ayers, and Frances Miner — B. G. Elementary; Alberta Culler, Barbara Freeman and Patricia B. Powell — Gladesview Elementary; Frances Cooper, Jeannette Heran, and Miss Thomas — Gov. Elementary.

R. L. Saxton, J. Gerrey, and Ray Noland — Lake Harbor. Rachel Hart — Lake Shore Elementary.

Alma Boscoe, Doris Ellick, and Florence Lockert — Okaloosa Elementary.

Mrs. G. E. Barnes — Okaloosa Elementary.

Mac Gaddon & Leslie Miller — Roseland Elementary.

Joan Willis, Margaret Bailey & Rose Goodbread — South Bay Elementary.

Three of the program workers represent three generations. Mrs. Thomas is a teacher at Gov. Elementary and her mother and daughter, Mrs. R. L. Saxton and Martha Lynn Thomas, are serving as aides in the program.

This program was begun last year with voluntary aides. Belle Glade Elementary alone had 60 volunteers. This year the program is federally financed and aids are assigned to schools on a 10 week basis, two hours a day for five days a week.

The program attempts to ready children for reading by developing skills the child has not yet mastered. The program begins with large muscle coordination and progress to help the children learn such basics as the left-right sequence and visual identification of objects essential to the learning of reading mathematics. The program also increases attention span and helps the child adjust to the demands of education through training in following directions.

The program is preventative in nature said Mrs. Bamford. This type of early training helps the child in the beginning instead of relying on remedial work if he falls behind. The children for the program selected through educational testing and respond well to the special attention to their needs the program affords, the said.

Uncle Dan from Doolie Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

The session at the country store Saturday night was took up mostly with bankers and hogs. On account of me usual keeping a little note at the bank, I don't want my banker to get no bad ideas and thinking I was putting the two together. But Zeke Grubb reported he had saw where a column writer named E. W. White had reported from New York that all banks in the country was soon going on the automatic.

This letter said the Federal Reserve System had put in more puters and was notifying banks they couldn't handle no more checks if they didn't have that "series of magnetic ink numbers" at the bottom. He went on to say he wasn't again machinery in general, that he thought the egg beater was the best machinery ever invented, but he was strong again they had computers wearing the pants and making all the decisions.

John Clobphor was agreed 100 per cent with this letter, said he could recollect when his Pa would give a farm hand a check and write it cashed.

I ain't so far to the right, Mister Editor, that I think banks had ought to handle checks made out on paper, books, but I ain't so far to the left neither that I'm in favor of banks giving crazy and giving 100 per cent on the automatic. I think there would have a few words to say to this matter, Mister Editor.

And it was at this point that Ed Doolittle bring bankers and hogs together. Ed said he had just received his Farm Journal magazine and they was some mighty interesting things in it about hogs. They claimed from 13 to 53 per cent of all hogs in the country had stomach ulcers.

And the Farm Journal experts blamed most of it on the hog owners. I warned buyers to see how hogs reacted to the money they took his hogs for the farmer has crossed them in on their narrow quarters, made 'em fight for position, step on each other to eat and drink, disturbed their rest and treated 'em rotten, you could expect them to have stomach ulcers.

Clew Webber said he didn't want to get quoted on the matter on account of his old lady might hear about it, but he was of the opinion a heap of married men, maybe 13 to 53 per cent, had ulcers for the same reason. They was constant getting nagged, disturbed and treated rough by their old lady. Personal Mister Editor, I got some say in my old lady, but I ain't got no comment on bankers, hogs or wives. They say things was now getting mixed up a doctor will even tell you if they ain't nothing wrong with you.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

Two Bible Verses For Daily Thought

Lillie Mae Miller, a member of the 2nd Baptist Church, said that recently a voice spoke to her two different times, repeating two verses in the Bible. Lillie, an elderly woman who professes to be saved and a Christian said she would like to help others, if they would read the lesson in the following two verses.

Exodus 14: "My Presence Shall go with Thee."

Isaiah 4: 10 — "For the mountains shall depart and the hills be removed; but my kind-ness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of peace be removed said the Lord, that hath mercy on thee."

Pahokee First Baptist Royal Ambassador Week Began With Father And Son Banquet

In observance of Royal Ambassador Week at the Pahokee First Baptist Church a Father-Son Banquet was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church last Thursday at 7:30. Approximately 63 including Royal Ambassadors and their fathers were present for the occasion.

The mothers prepared the Banquet dinner, which everyone enjoyed.

Special guests were Rev. Guthrie Colvard minister, and Mrs. Colvard; the brotherhood President, Mitchell Kirk, and Wiley Tillis, president of the deacons. Wayne Burkhardt is director of the Royal Ambassadors and also the leader in the Senior High Training Union. He was recently ordained into the deaconship of the church.

The theme of the program was "Around the World With Christ." A funny skit depicting the Space Age was presented by some of the boys.

On Sunday, Nov. 5, in further observance of RA week, all the RA's sat in a body at the morning worship service. On Sunday evening the boys were in charge of the evening worship service, in the Church Sanctuary.

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 8, the first night of the Laymen's Evangelist Revival, a special choir, composed entirely of RA boys sang during the evening Prayer Service.

Today's Sermonette

By Rev. J. A. Peterson
Lake Harbor Baptist Church

In James the 4th Chapter and 8th verse, there is a text that we should take with us each day, "Draw nigh to God, and He will draw nigh to you."

It is hard sometimes for us to realize that God loves each and every one of us, and that He wants to be very close to us at all times, and that our Nearness to Him depends entirely upon us.

In John, Chapter 4, 8th verse the Bible says "He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love."

Too often we just stumble through the day with a burdened heart, and life becomes miserable when all we need to do is pause, and draw nigh to God. Jesus said in Matthew 11, 28. Come unto me all ye that labor, and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. It matters not what your burden may be, it will work, try it.

From Impala, world's most popular car
The silent ride of quality for '68
Now there are more good reasons than ever why people should prefer Impala. Like all regular Chevrolets, it's even further ahead for '68!
A more heated ride. Among other things, we refined and improved everything about the ride to make it surprisingly smooth and silent. Just try it and see. You'll find that our engineers used electronic computers to pinpoint places where noise might develop, and installed a special network of rubber cushions to keep squeaks and rattles from disturbing your comfort.
We doubt that you've ever driven a car that moves so noiselessly.
The look you like best. People have always preferred Impala's looks. So for 1968 we made it even more beautiful. We gave the grille a more massive and masculine look. We gave the hood sweeping new lines and tucked the wipers neatly out of sight. We designed the taillights right into the rear bumper for a look you're sure to like.
We figure we owe people more than other car makers do. Because it was people who put us in first place in the first place, and who keep us there year after year.
We appreciate it.

Six JV's Moved To Varsity Play

By Gail Sullivan

The close of the Junior Varsity season was highlighted with the placement of five sophomores and one Junior into the Varsity line up.

These six boys can be spotted wearing: Sonny Crawford 86, Benny Parrish 81, Charles Johnson 12, Eddie McGlamory 48, Mike Millwe 76, and Dickie Snow 71.

Coach Don Hornish said, "We feel these boys have a lot of ability and some will certainly see action. We were particularly pleased with their performance in the Jupiter game. We were particularly pleased with Charles Close who scored with an intercepted pass. Also Charles Johnson, who intercepted a pass and the fine running of Eddie McGlamory. The rest of the B-teamers are doing a good job of blocking at their position in the line."

Charles McGlamory, a full-back tips the scale at 175 and measures up to 5'11". Eddie is a member of FFA and plans to play Baseball later this year. His Pet Peeve is people that bug him all the time. His interests are hunting, horse back riding and one certain girl.

Charles Johnson is a 5'9" 160 lb. halfback. He is an active member of Interact and is Vice President of the Sophomore Class. At the present, Charles plans to further his athletic participation in basketball, baseball and track. He would like to attend college at Auburn or Alabama. Charles' hobby is fishing.

"I like to build Mingo and work on mechanics," says Dickie Snow. He plays offensive guard and tackle and defensive tackle. Dickie is 5 foot 10 and weighs 165 lbs. He plans to play basketball and run track.

Hunting and Fishing are the hobbies of end, Sonny Crawford. He is 5'10" and 150 pounds and is looking forward to playing basketball, track and baseball. Sonny is President of the Sophomore Class and an active member of Interact. He plans to attend "Old" Miss University.

Center, Benny Parrish, is 5'11" and weighs 185 lbs. He is a member of FFA and was noted Best Farmer last year. His only plans for college are to further his knowledge and play football.

Miller, known around campus as Beard, is a Junior and plans to attend University of Florida. Beard is FFA secretary and enjoys hunting and fishing. Mike is 5'9" weigh 210 and plays tackle for the Rams.

Whittemore And Prevatt Show Good Running

This year the Rams have exhibited fine running strength in their backfield runners Eddie Prevatt, and Mark Whittemore.

Through the first seven games of the season Prevatt has 40 attempts for 262 yards, two touchdowns, a long gain of 27 yards, and an overall average of 6.6 yards per carry.

Whittemore has carried the ball 39 times for 264 yards, he has a long gain of 53 yards, two touchdowns, and an overall average of 6.8 yards per carry.

Among Prevatt's other duties, he has played Defensive End of the entire season. Mark has been playing defensive halfback for the Rams all season.

The Rams are now in a position to be the overall leader in the Suncoast Conference, and if the Rams are NO. 1, it could be, in part due to the offensive effort to Prevatt and Whittemore.

Library Club

Library Club had a pot luck supper as its initial social event of the year at the home of Rita Schoenfeld last night. Hostesses for the event were Rita and Diane Brown.

At a regular meeting held in the library November 1, plans were made for a Christmas party. Rochelle Shapiro and Kathleen Murphy are in charge of arrangements. Judy Zwicki and Diane Brown are co-chairmen of the decorating committee for the party.

A committee, consisting of Jim Winchester, Brian Moore, and Zedick Shapiro were selected to draft a constitution and a set of by-laws.

The club will hold a rummage sale December 2. President Bill Phillips has asked all members and non-members who would like to contribute rummage to bring it to the library by November 24.

Beta Club

Speech teacher John Mayberry told the Beta Club at their meeting Monday about his trip to Europe last summer. He showed slides that he took on his trip with American Youth Hostels, which took him to England, Scotland, Norway, Denmark, Belgium, Holland.

BIG MOUTH

Miss Powell, we saw you got a pair of underwear from your first year French class. How 'bout it???

Lee D., we hear you have a few nicknames. How 'bout it "June Bug"?

Geraldine L. what's this we hear about you swallowing a Slink Bug? Did your breath really stink?

Margaret T., why do you want to know how pin worms can be caught?

Well, Diane F., did you really get a sweaty, greasy kiss from a certain football player — does 45 ring a bell?

Did anything happen Friday night Bruce B. and Mike Y.? Could it be that an old flame played you a visit?

Tina L. and Sandy W. were you really on Candid Camera last Friday night on the band bus or were you just playing Phyllis Diller for kicks?

Well, Well, Johnny B. and Bruce B., did you find out Saturday that Alan S. can take care of himself (and someone else besides) . . .

Jackie K., are you really a gossip or do you just like to talk to Bryan P. in French class.

Steve Y., we hear you had a little accident with a can of beans the other day.

Molly T., are you really a Twigg?

Sharon W., whose picture is hanging on your wall. Could it be Roger B.?

Mr. Wing, do you always go around pinching people?

Rams Are Now Number One In The West

The Rams are now number one in the Western Division of the Suncoast Conference after beating Boca Raton 20-0 Friday.

The first score was spectacular when Tommy Altman ran 50 yards for a touchdown after avoiding all efforts made to tackle him. Jorge Rodriguez's first kick of the evening was converted.

The next touchdown came in the second quarter with Eddie Prevatt running 12 yards to score. Rodriguez's kick was again good making the score 14-0.

Terry Mann and Altman set up the next touchdown. Mann ran 26 yards and then Altman ran 18 yards leaving Prevatt six yards to run for the touchdown. The extra point was attempted by a pass but it was incomplete.

The Boca team's main attempts at scoring were made through passing attempts which the Belle Glade defense did a good job of knocking from the air and intercepting. They earned the cheerleaders new cheer about a "darn good defense."

Three of the players doing an outstanding job the other night were Rodriguez, Julio Perez and Dennis Connell.

Tomorrow night the Rams meet the Stuart Tigers in the next to the last game of the season here.

Homecoming Stops Bobcats, Devils Win

Friday the Mighty Bobcats of Lake Shore journeyed to West Palm Beach to battle the Roosevelt Maroon Devils for their Homecoming.

The game began with the Bobcats receiving. They were unsuccessful so they had to punt. The Devils began their drive which ended as their first touchdown. The first and second quarters was a run & way for the Devils, and by half time the game score was 18-0.

PRACTICE — John Stedman, a senior, is getting ready for the marching festival that is to be held on November 18. John is the trampoline section leader.

After a beautiful half time show the Bobcats kicked to the Devils and hugged them for four downs for the first time during the game.

The second half of the game was full of action and hand hitting. The Bobcats defensive team had really come to life, but it was too late, and the game ended another Devil's victory with a score of 18-0.

Lake Harbor Elementary Has Party

The retailer who loses faith in his advertising effort is often placing the blame in the wrong place.

As one marketing specialist put it: "The most frequent cause of advertising failure is insufficient advertising."

Effective advertising cannot be judged on the basis of short range results. Nor can spasmotic splurges be expected to bring significant results.

The cost of a building does not end with original construction. Repairs bring the day a building is occupied.

The same evaluation should be made of advertising. National companies introducing a new product do not attempt to assess the results of advertising until from six months to two years after a campaign is started. They realize that any quick conclusions could be misleading.

ent advertising is the retailer likely to judge fairly the effects of the overall growth of his business.

Tuesday the first grade and second grade, section M, of Lake Harbor Elementary School enjoyed its Halloween party. After games on the campus, all kinds of goodies were served in the classroom adorned with three grinning jack-o-lanterns. Mrs. Jack Barker, Jr., selected three winners in the Halloween Costume Parade: Zelma Bailey, Alice Ford, and David Spahn.

Librarian, Mrs. Alphonso Harrell, observed October 29-November 4 Book Week by inviting all students to participate in a contest. Winners were: Billy Tipton, First Grade; Cedric Major, Second Grade; Arlene Simms, Second Grade; Fitzgerald Brereton, Fourth Grade; Denise McKenzie, Fourth Grade; Joann Simms, Fifth Grade; Dorothy Tipton, Sixth Grade.

The terms "irregular" and "second" used in history advertisements don't mean the same thing. The Federal Trade Commission has ruled that "irregular" means history fails to meet standards for first quality in length, foot size, color, or know. "Second" doesn't mean either first quality or irregular standards because they contain actual damage, such as runs.

Baby Bobcats Faced First Defeat

Last Thursday afternoon on Lake Shore's Athletic Field the Jr. Maroon Devils of Roosevelt stopped the undefeated Baby Bobcats by a score of 12-7.

The game got off to a slow start. Neither team was powerful enough to strike pay dirt. After the half time break, the Devils really got evil by scoring the first touchdown of the game.

The Baby Bobcats still warm up failed to punt. After things had settled the Devils put a little more wood on the fire; which moved them to a 12-0 score over the Baby Bobcats. The Devils last T-D really sparked the Baby Bobcats and they struck pay dirt for the first time during the game.

The last few minutes of the game was full of action and the game ended with a score of 12-7 — another Maroon Devils victory.

The mighty Baby Bobcats stand now with three wins and one loss.

Bobcats To Play Tigers Friday

Friday the Bobcats will be in Fort Myers to tangle with the Dunbar High Tigers. The Bobcats set a high school record last season by skinning the Tigers by a score of 81 to 6. This game will end the 1967 football season for the Bobcats.

The Bobcats now stand with one win, four losses and one tie.

Outstanding Offensive Players were: M. Vereen, D. Brown, G. Campbell, S. Brown, W. Stanley, M. Mitchell and A. Williams.

Outstanding Defensive Players were: J. Whitaker, H. Pirat G. Haynes, R. Finney and G. Gray.

Science Dept. Tries New IPS

The Science Department, added a new program this year for the Freshmen called IPS (Introductory Physical Science).

It is a revolutionary program for Freshmen. It is laboratory — centered and the students spend most of their time performing experiments. The students are grouped in twos and supplied with a specially equipped kit for the course. Each student has an individual Laboratory Manual and Programmed Text.

Mr. Perry, head of the Science Department, thinks that it is a superior approach for teaching Science at this level.
